

MISSION VALLEY POWER ANNOUNCES NEW GENERAL MANAGER

The Mission Valley Power (MVP) Utility Board and CSKT Tribal Council are pleased to announce the appointment of Zachary Conko Camel as the new General Manager of MVP. Mr. Conko Camel brings with him, in a full supervisory role, twenty-nine years of successful accounting, budgeting, compliance, and finance expertise. In his new role, Zack will be responsible for overseeing all activities within MVP's operations. Customer service will resonate throughout the organization and an understanding that the most cost-effective electric power service to its customers is our primary purpose. He will work closely with the Tribal Council, Utility Board, BIA, and Consumer Council to ensure the overall strategy of MVP is sound and feasible. "We are excited to welcome Zachary Conko Camel to our team," said Tom McDonald, CSKT Tribal

Chairman. "His extensive career in the finance department along with his commitment makes him the ideal candidate to lead MVP. We are confident that Zack will shepherd MVP to a new level of excellence." As a team leader, Zachary Conko Camel is a big believer in collaboration because it creates consistency. Zack enjoys working under pressure to achieve difficult tasks. He has fine-tuned these skills over his career working with CSKT's multi-billion-dollar Tribal Government. He is looking forward to working with the team to build on MVP's continued success. Upon selection, Zach said "I look forward to meeting with our team. We are going to place the light on our successes while striving to improve on our weaknesses. Together we are going to build a brighter and sustainable future". "I will do everything in my power to cultivate a culture of engagement, openness, inclusion, and sound business decisions. Our actions, and our resolve, will help us pay attention to the smallest details; with the understanding that every great event starts with the smallest beginnings." Zachary Conko Camel is a 1993 graduate of the University of Montana with a Bachelor of Science Degree in management and has continually increased his leadership abilities throughout his career in finance. He believes in building leaders and creating a purpose driven leadership tradition. Mr. Camel embraces and understands the importance of designing a positive work environment that is reflected throughout Mr. Conko-Camel's tenure, leading to increased productivity and efficiency. Mr. Camel began his new role on August 7, 2023.
